NATIONAL WORKERS' COMP LAW FIRM BOOSTS CHARITABLE ENDEAVORS IN OAKLAND

Efforts by Adelson, Testan, Brundo, Novell & Jimenez Part of Firm's National Community Support Program

OAKLAND, December 20, 2017 – Attorneys and staff of the Oakland office of Adelson, Testan, Brundo, Novell & Jimenez (ATB), a leading workers' compensation defense law firm, showed some holiday spirit by actively supporting three charitable organizations in the city this month.

Specifically, ATB was involved in the following events and activities:

- Midway Shelter for Abused Women and Children. On Dec. 2, ATB provided a donation and its attorneys and staff were among more than 200 participants in the shelter's 5K race and 1-mile walk, which also raises funds for the Alameda Midway Shelter for Abused Women and Children. More information on the shelter is available by visiting: www.midwayshelter.org/
- DreamCatcher Shelter. On Dec. 4, ATB's Oakland office showed their support for DreamCatcher Shelter by making a donation and preparing duffle bags filled with clothing, cosmetics, blankets, pillows, and books for several girls staying at the shelter. Since 2000, the shelter has provided a safe landing for homeless and disconnected at-risk youth in Alameda County between the ages of 13 - 18. - Oakland Mayor's Toy Drive. With Susan Novell, ATB's Regional Managing Partner, serving as a member of the Workers' Compensation Toy Drive Reception Committee, the law firm's Oakland office helped raise more than $30,000 and 39 large boxes of toys, as well as a red tricycle for disadvantaged Oakland children.

"Even though many of us are personally involved with various charitable causes throughout the year, we all found it especially rewarding this time of year to participate as a team to support these incredible programs," said Max Breall, ATB's Oakland Managing Partner. "The work being done every day by the staff at the shelters gives those in extremely challenging circumstances a critical lifeline to get through their difficulties. And the toy drive is a wonderful way to bring some holiday cheer to our neediest children."

The law firm's work on behalf of the shelters and toy drive is part of ATB Cares, a national initiative started this year, involving each of ATB's 26 offices around the country in various community outreach activities.

About Adelson, Testan, Brundo, Novell & Jimenez

Established in 1996, Adelson, Testan, Brundo, Novell & Jimenez (ATB) is a national law firm whose primary focus is the defense of workers' compensation claims, employer's liability and related matters as well as the defense of its clients in personal injury and civil litigation cases.
