NATIONAL WORKERS' COMP LAW FIRM BRINGS SOME HOLIDAY CHEER TO NEEDY CHILDREN IN SANTA ANA

Effort by Adelson, Testan, Brundo, Novell & Jimenez
Part of Firm's National Community Support Program

SANTA ANA, December 12, 2017 – Attorneys and staff of the Santa Ana office of Adelson, Testan, Brundo, Novell & Jimenez (ATB), a leading workers' compensation defense law firm, showed some holiday spirit by providing gifts for area children served by Olive Crest, a nonprofit organization providing foster care and adoption services in California, Nevada and the Pacific Northwest.

Founded in 1973, Olive Crest is a leader in the prevention and treatment of child abuse, serving nearly 3,000 children and families each day. ATB provided gifts and gift cards to fulfill the holiday wishes of individual children served by the Olive Crest location in Santa Ana. The firm's work with Olive Crest is part of ATB Cares, a national initiative started this year, involving each of ATB's 26 offices around the country in various community outreach activities.

"During this special time of year, it is a unique privilege for all of us to work with Olive Crest to help brighten the lives of children now under their care who may be emerging from very difficult circumstances," said Brian Beltran, co-managing partner, ATB's Santa Ana office.

"We are honored to join with the staff at Olive Crest in Santa Ana to bring some added cheer during the holidays to the many children they serve here throughout the year," added Julio Martinez, ATB's co-managing partner in Santa Ana. "It's inspiring to know that every day they are doing their utmost to make a huge difference in the lives of children and families in crisis here in Santa Ana, as well as in other communities in California and neighboring states."
